ITALIAN-HYBRIDS

A beekeeper's favorite & best seller. Gentle attitudes, great honey producers with less tendency to swarm.

CARNIOLAN-HYBRIDS

A popular breed due to very gentle temperament and early Spring build up. More likely to swarm but do well in colder weather. Similar to Russians in brood production.

RUSSIAN-HYBRIDS

Famous for their hygienic behaviors causing them to be somewhat mite resistant. Tend to be more aggressive but prolific brood producers. Overwinter well.

CAUCASIAN-HYBRIDS

Becoming more popular due to their longer tongues increasing honey production and ability to thrive in colder climates. Similar to Italians in production and like the Carniolan in temperament.
